Office of Retention & Graduation Success

- Elsa Bravo has joined the team
- Incoming Cohort Survey
 - Qualitative, focused on better understanding the students that we're serving
 - This will not replace the Freshman Survey
 - It will be two parts: a baseline (1215 and 1218 FTIC students)

- Expectation for the 1st term/year
- Yearly check ins with 7 questions about expectations and challenges
- Angela inquired about getting students to address interest in study abroad sooner rather than later
- Korrin and Elsa to connect and collaborate to ensure the information sought from this group of students isn't duplicated
- Hazel mentioned the recent Sophomore Takeover as another way to get information from students
- Math Placement Model (MPM) Updates
 - The importance of the math placement is equivalent of success in math courses and identify students who struggle or need a challenge
 - Too hard? The students drop out. Too easy? There are delays in milestones.
 - Incoming students have an automatic MPS, if no college level math is on their transcript
 - Last math in college defines the sequence
 - Overall GPA + SAT/ACT + High school math coursework = MPS
 - Updates: adding more variables (20-30) to increase accuracy; adding a larger sample of data (more years). Prior model was from 2018.
 - Model is more accurate than ALEKS or other external tests
 - If student does not agree with MPS, ALEKS may be taken as placement to demonstrate competency
 - Expected: Spring 2022 Orientation.
