11. THE POP ACT HAS BEEN APPROVED

B. SR 03 009: The MyTextMate Act (vote)

1. Sen Hernandez: Reads the MyTextMate Act. The purpose of MyTextMate is to allow students to be reminded of important class deadlines. This is in collaboration with Canvas.
2. Sen Kukuk: When you get a deadline on canvas you receive it, how would this work?
3. Sen Hernandez: This service is going to be working with the student's canvas but work with their text messages, this is automatic.
4. Sen Algren: How much would it cost to do this?
5. Sen Stone: Is this a service you have to opt into, and can you opt out?
6. Sen Sutton: It's an opt in service. We'd be giving it to the first 1000 students. My guess is that it would be difficult to opt out.
7. Sen Kukuk: Once a test run is done, would students pay this?
8. Sen Sutton: Once we pay for the initial test run, SGA could allocate money to pay for this, either SGA or a fee.
9. Sen Dawson: Is there a plan for when the trial period end to be able to get feedback from the first 1000 students that tried this out?
10. Sen Hernandez: This has not been discussed but this is a good idea in order to get feedback to apply to a larger basis.
11. Sen Reiban: When this legislation was first brought up, I said that it is the student's responsibility to be aware of the deadline so I would say "no" to this.
12. Sen Moya Palacios: I would say "no" to this because if you go on the website and you look at the reviews the maker generates them, and I don't think this would work.
13. Sen Hernandez: This is a test run for 1000 students to see if this works, it's the responsibility of the students to be aware of the deadline but some professors aren't the best at communicating it.

14. Sen Algren: FAU, NSU, etc. have used this service or have run a test run. A lot of neighboring universities are using this so we should give it a try.
15. Sen Tuñon: In support of it because we are just testing it. A good reminder is helpful especially since students are already so busy with their lives.
16. Sen Lares-Chacin: It's only a test run but I don't want students to be spending their money on this.
17. Sen Sutton: If we fund this, I will try to be one of the first 1000. It's every student's responsibility but a lot of people would benefit from this.
18. Sen Arzola: How are these 1000 people going to be picked? Constantly checking your emails, etc. helps develop your professionalism.
19. Sen Hernandez: First come first serve.
20. Sen Moya Palacios: Back in the summer when Charlie, the owner of the app, could not respond to some of the questions fellow senators asked and this is the responsibility of the student.
21. Sen Loiseau: If this would be implemented it would create positive habits that will lead to better time management.
22. Sen Hernandez: Not against the amendment made by Sen Dawson
23. MOTION: Sen Moya Palacios: Table this: MOTION FAILS

X. New Business

A. SB 03 016: The Cell Phone Charging Station Act (vote)

1. Sen Stone: $1,400 would be allocated to install 2 wall mounted cell phone charging stations at the WRC. The WRC director has approved this collaboration. SGA has agreed to provide this cost.
2. Sen Reiban: What is the cost for the maintenance?
3. Sen Arzamendi: The annual cost is not a set cost; it depends on if there is a cable that breaks for example, but the director of the WRC has agreed to this.
4. Sen Arzola: We did have a charging station in the WRC but where did they go because it disappeared?
5. Sen Arzamendi: There was a new director who was unaware of this.
6. Dr. Michelle Castro: They were falling apart, and they were disposed of because they were not viable anymore.
7. Sen Kukuk: Are we talking about the wall mounted ones or the big, tall ones?
8. Sen Stone: Wall mounted.

9. Sen Kukuk: Where would we put these?
10. Sen Arzamendi: The wall mounted ones would be placed wherever the director sees it fit.
11. Sen Rodriguez: I give a lot of respect and will be saying “yes” when we get to vote.
12. Sen King: How much money is left in the appropriation line?
13. Sen Arzamendi: 13k
14. Sen Gaynor: MOTION: Move into roll call vote.

2. Sen Dawson: What is the goal of this conversation?
3. Sen Sutton: Some of the sponsors wanted to talk about this and why it was voted down.
4. Sen Gaynor: This would be for recognition, in order for this to be a day off that is up to the state government.

5. Sen Coll: Voted this down because FIU already has a week to remember the holocaust.
6. Sen Arzola: MOTION: End discussion period: MOTION passes
7. Sen Gaynor: MOTION: remand the Victims of Fascism and National Socialism Day: MOTION FAILS
8. MOTION: Extend senate until 6:10PM

D. SR 03 017: The International Counseling Act (vote)

1. Sen Kukuk reads The International Counseling Act
2. Sen Stone: Every department would have one, does that include housing?
3. Sen Kukuk: Yes, each department would have an advisor.
4. Sen King: Confused on the language and terminology.
5. Sen Kukuk: We can clarify the language.
6. Sen Hernandez: Who would cover the salary?
7. Sen Kukuk: It's not necessary for it to be a whole position and these are just advisors.

9. Sen Kukuk: If you are an international student there's very little space for you to get housing.
10. Sen Loiseau: A big issue for international students is moving out.
11. Sen Stone: Would it be okay to talk to the housing director to extend the deadline?
12. Sen Loiseau: Yes, moving the date back would help a lot.
