Internship Program Admissions

Briefly describe in narrative form important information to assist potential applicants in assessing their likely fit with your program. This description must be consistent with the program's policies on intern selection and practicum and academic preparation requirements:

The APA-accredited program at the IACS-accredited Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS) at FIU is housed on two campuses: one in South-West Miami and one on the bay in North Miami. FIU is a large, young, dynamic, urban, multicultural, multi-ethnic University with approximately 56,000 students. Interns have the opportunity to provide individual, group and couples therapy. Interns are also involved in crisis intervention. They provide workshops and offer consultation to various departments including the Wellness and Recreation Centers, Disability Resource Center, Student Conduct and Academic Integrity, and Residence Life. We offer opportunities in cognitive and achievement and/or psychoeducational psychological testing. The internship program utilizes an integrative developmental and competency-based supervision perspective and offers a strong commitment to diversity. Intern experiences are tailored to meet interns' individual developmental and competency needs and interests, allowing them to select involvement in legacy projects and committee work. Supervision is of utmost importance to us and exposure to several of our licensed full-time psychologists is provided. Comprehensive didactic training seminars round out the program. Our two clinics and supervision are supported by sophisticated technology that facilitates coordination. Interns are valued as an integral part of the staff and actively participate on committees and in staff meetings. Please see our website at www.caps.fiu.edu for a more elaborate description of what we have to offer.
